DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 1-8,10-14,16-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. As per the most recent interpretation of the Interim Guidelines regarding 35 U.S.C. 101, claims 1-8,10-14,16-43 define non-statutory processes because, although the claims define a computer readable medium, the specification defines a computer readable medium including a modulated data signal over a carrier wave as part of a communications medium which does not conform to the Interim Guidelines (see pages 55-57, i.e., it does not appear that a claim reciting a signal encoded with functional descriptive material falls within any of the categories of patentable subject matter set forth in 35 U.S.C. 101). Furthermore, the current claim scope does not contain enough structural and functional interrelationships between the computer program and other claimed elements of a computer which permit the computer program's functionality to be realized (Lowry, 32 F.3d at 1583-1584, 32 USPQ2d at 1035).
3. Claims 1-8,10-14,16-43 are allowed over the prior art of record. The claim limitations that are not met by the prior art of record deal with placing tags that delimit a grammar structure with the grammar tags as part of defining a grammar for speech recognition.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
